

GENERAL ELECTION 2020 SANTA ANA, CA

WARD 3 CANDIDATES

JESSIE LOPEZ

Jessie Lopez is a proud lifelong resident of Santa Ana. She graduated from SAUSD schools and CSULB while working two jobs, becoming her family's first college graduate. Jessie volunteers with the Public Law Center as a Spanish interpreter and with the Rise Up Willowick coalition, fighting for community-driven development. Jessie was elected to the Democratic Party of OC Central Committee where she advocates for working families. Jessie will never stop fighting for attainable housing, reducing homelessness, increasing transparency, and supporting youth programs to create a safe and vibrant Santa Ana.

MARK MCLOUGHLIN

Mark is a long-time homeowner, and active leader with a commitment of fifteen years volunteering for our community, presently serving as Chair of Planning Commission. A business executive with experience in strategic planning, cost reduction, and contract negotiations for Xerox, Lockheed and startups. McLoughlin has the experience, knowledge, and relationships to bring effective representation and voice to our Council that will once again prioritize our north side of town. Mark holds a B.S. Degree in Manufacturing Engineering from Syracuse University and a M.B.A. Degree in Business Management from Rochester Institute of Technology.

DANNY VEGA

Born and raised in Santa Ana, Danny Vega is a husband, father, homeowner, Christian, and a conservative. He has a BS in Electrical Engineering and works full time as Hardware Validation Engineer. He believes that Santa Ana should be led by residents, not career politicians. He's not accepting financial backing or endorsements from developers, unions, or political parties. His promises are to the Santa Ana resident and nobody else. He plans on improving quality of life by addressing our homeless crises, high crime rate, and bringing transparency to city hall.

JEFFREY KATZ

Katz represents a fresh, bold and independent voice emerging from the neighborhoods of Ward 3 in Santa Ana. He is an experienced government relations attorney who has sat on the executive boards of OC start-ups. Yet, he also serves as a volunteer case manager for Santa Ana homeless. He is committed to ensuring that our local government is responsive to the needs and voice of its residents. His vision is to restore Santa Ana to its authentic self when the city shined as the capital of Orange County.

JANNELLE WELKER

Jannelle Welker is as a Policy Advisor/Communications Director for Fourth District Supervisor Doug Chaffee. Prior to serving in these dual roles, she worked as a Strategic Researcher at the Orange County Employees Association (OCEA). She graduated from the University of California, Irvine with a B.A. in Political Science after transferring from Santa Ana College and founding a political science club for students. In addition, Jannelle is currently a taskforce member for the Women's Transitional Living Center, Inc. (WTLC), the oldest domestic violence program and shelter in Orange County.

